

Women's Auxiliary Board

spring events

The DBU Women's Auxiliary Board celebrated two annual events this past Spring – the Bluebonnet Luncheon, held on April 8, and the Membership Tea, held on May 4.

Members of the DBU Women's Auxiliary Board gathered together in the Great Hall of the Mahler Student Center to celebrate the annual Bluebonnet Luncheon. Bobbie Pinson, who currently serves on the DBU Board of Trustees, was the chair of the luncheon committee, while Cynthia Davis, Pam Hall, Dr. Nell Hoffman, Ann Kelley, Virgie Mangham, Betty Rush, Raleigh Mae Stevenson, Phyllis Tresnicky, and Carolyn Wicker served as committee members.

During the luncheon, special tribute was paid to Mrs. Sheila Cook for 27 years of service as First Lady at DBU, while also honoring the graduating international students at Dallas Baptist University. Dr. and Mrs. Cook's sons, David, who serves at DBU as an assistant professor of leadership and director of the M.A. in Leadership program, and Mark Cook, who serves as the program coordinator for the Institute for Global Engagement, both spoke and shared stories about their mother's ministry both as a parent and First Lady.

This year's Membership Tea was held in the beautiful home of Art and Linda Alexander, longtime friends of DBU.

The committee members of the event included Anita Jones, Carol Hindes, Sandy Owen, Leslie Moulton, May Beth Smith, Carolyn Garon, and Marjanna Thomas.

For more information on the Women's Auxiliary Board, please contact Candice Wright, WAB executive director, via email at candice@dbu.edu.

Sheila Cook and Bobbie Pinson

Sheila Cook with sons David and Mark Cook

Sally Nation and Dr. Gail Linam

Linda Alexander, Sheila Cook, Mary Stuart, and Candice Wright