If answer to any question is NO, the Title IX Grievance Process does not apply. Use process for other misconduct.

9

Initial Grievance Process Steps

- Step ½: Contact Complainant (Intake)
- Step 1: Supportive Measures Meeting With Complainant
- Step 2: Consider Emergency Removal / Administrative Leave for Respondent

If Complainant files a Formal Complaint or Title IX Coordinator signs a Formal Complaint

- Step 3: Notice of Allegations
- Step 4: Consider Dismissal
- Step 5: Informal Resolution (in appropriate cases)

Requirements for Notice

- ▶ Upon receipt of a Formal Complaint, an educational institution must provide written notices to known parties:
 - Title IX Grievance Process (including informal resolution)
 - Allegations of sexual harassment
 - Right to inspect and review evidence
 - Right to have an advisor during the process
 - Any policy / provision of code of conduct that prohibits knowingly making false statements or submitting false information

Thompson & Horton LLP
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

19

Requirements for Notice

- ▶ Sufficient details known at the time and sufficient time to prepare a response before any initial interview.
 - Identity of parties involved in incident, if known
 - The conduct allegedly constituting sexual harassment
 - The date and location of the alleged incident, if known

Thompson & Horton LLP

20

Impact on Investigation

- ▶ Notice of Allegations to the Respondent is required before the educational institution meets with the respondent for an interview
- ▶ If there is not a Notice of Allegations, make sure one is sent before you do anything else in the investigation
- ▶ Supportive measures should have been offered to the parties by this time, as well—verify with the Title IX Coordinator so you can help keep an eye on supportive measures during the investigation

Case Study

On August 22, 2022, Francis F. requested to speak with me after class about a friend in the class. Francis reported that this friend had been touched in the genital area without consent during a social event on campus. Francis did not initially name the student, but eventually told me it was Carson C., another student in my class.

- Professor Peterson Handwritten Statement August 22, 2022

Thompson & Horton LLP

33

From: Carson Complainant
To: Title IX Coordinator
Subject: Complaint
Date: Thursday, August 25, 2022 7:18:28 PM

I know that Francis F. spoke to our professor about what happened to me on campus. I didn't want to tell anyone, but now that it's out, I do think it's important that something be done. I also need you to know that the person who did this to me also has made numerous horrible statements to me, all sexual in nature. Please let me know what you will be doing to deal with this situation.

Thompson & Horton LLP

34

Our Case: More Facts

- ▶ A formal complaint was filed on August 25, 2022 by CP
- ▶ Supportive measures are in place
- ▶ The Title IX Coordinator determined that, if true, the alleged conduct could be “fondling,” a type of sexual assault, and severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive “sexual harassment”
- ▶ A notice of allegations was sent on August 30, 2022

Thompson & Horton LLP

35

NOA: Allegations

It is alleged that on or around [dates]:

1. Robin Respondent (the “Respondent”) touched Carson Complainant’s (the “Complainant’s”) genitals over the clothing without consent, and
2. The Respondent repeatedly made sex-based comments to the Complainant.

Thompson & Horton LLP

36

37

Our Case: Allegations

The alleged conduct, if true, could be sexual harassment in an education program or activity of a recipient of federal funding and against a person in the United States. Specifically:

1. Touching the private body parts of another without consent and for purposes of sexual gratification is “fondling,” which is a type of sexual assault under Title IX, and
2. Unwelcome sex-based conduct that is so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies equal access to the educational institution’s educational program or activity is “sexual harassment” prohibited under Title IX.

37

IMPARTIALITY

Thompson & Horton LLP

38

39

2. Verification of impartiality

Any individual designated as an Investigator may not have a conflict of interest or bias for or against complainants or respondents generally or an individual complainant or respondent

34 C.F.R. § 106.45(b)(1)(iii)

Thompson & Horton LLP

39

40

An impartial investigator ...

- ▶ Is unbiased
- ▶ Has no conflict of interest
- ▶ Does not prejudice
- ▶ Is well trained

Thompson & Horton LLP

40

41

Impartial Approach

- ▶ The preamble to the 2020 Title IX rules call for educational institutions to use an objective, “common sense approach” to evaluating whether bias, conflict of interest, or prejudice exists
- ▶ Remember that “objective” means whether a reasonable person would believe partiality exists
- ▶ The preamble says not to apply “generalizations” that might unreasonably conclude partiality exists

The investigator has a disciplinary role in the school and has imposed discipline on Robin in the past; can they be impartial?

Yes, imposing discipline on a student does not create an impermissible risk of bias.

No, but only if the discipline was for prior sexual misconduct.

No, imposing discipline on a student creates an impermissible risk of bias.

42

The investigator attends the same religious institution as Robin; can they be impartial?

Yes, attending the same religious institution with someone does not create a conflict of interest.

Yes, as long as there is no close personal or church-business relationship between the investigator and Robin or their family.

No, attending the same religious institution with someone creates a conflict of interest.

The investigator has raised money and marched for victims-rights advocacy groups; can they be impartial?

Yes, engaging in such advocacy work does not create impermissible bias or conflict of interest.

Yes, as long as the investigator has been trained.

Yes, as long as the investigator has not made statements suggesting they are incapable of being impartial.

Yes, a person who has engaged in such advocacy work can never be impartial.

The investigator believes traumatic stress affects brain function and, in turn, memory and behavior; can they be impartial?

Yes, belief in "trauma informed practices" does not create a conflict of interest or bias.

Yes, if the investigator does not rely on apparent trauma as evidence.

No if the investigator uses trauma-informed investigative techniques.

No, belief in "trauma informed practices" renders someone biased toward victims.

45

Impartiality Tips

- ▶ Be open with the Title IX Coordinator or their designee about any concerns—better to report something that turns out to be nothing than to ignore something that turns out to be a big deal
- ▶ When in doubt, disclose any concerns to the parties and get their agreement to allow you to continue in the role (with Title IX Coordinator)
- ▶ Show your work! The best way to avoid a claim of bias, conflict of interest, or prejudice is to methodically work your case and write a solid report

49

50

LAW ENFORCEMENT & EVIDENCE

50

51

4. Interaction with law enforcement

- ▶ Law enforcement is often involved when reported conduct is criminal in nature
- ▶ Child protective services may also be involved/investigating where abuse or neglect is suspected

51

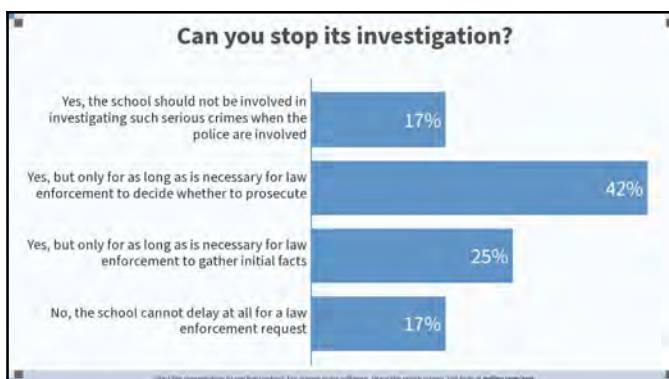

52

Our Case: The Police

- ▶ Carson files a police report regarding the alleged fondling
- ▶ Officer Ogletree contacts you upon finding out that you are investigating and is quite angry that you are “screwing up their investigation”
- ▶ The Officer says the educational institution must turn over the investigation to the police and stop “meddling” in police business

52

53

The Police are the Beginning, Not the End

“[A] law enforcement investigation does not relieve the school of its independent Title IX obligation to investigate the conduct.”

“Police investigations may be useful for fact-gathering; but because the standards for criminal investigations are different, police investigations or reports are not determinative of whether sexual harassment or violence violates Title IX. Conduct may constitute unlawful sexual harassment under Title IX even if the police do not have sufficient evidence of a criminal violation.”

54

Delay for Concurrent Law Enforcement Investigation

- ▶ An educational institution must conduct its Title IX investigation in a “reasonably prompt” manner but may temporarily delay the investigation for good cause, which may include concurrent law enforcement activity
- ▶ No long or indefinite delay or extension of timeframes, regardless of whether a concurrent law enforcement investigation is still pending

Notice of Delay

- ▶ A Title IX team member must send written notice to both parties regarding the delay or extension and the reason(s) for the delay or extension
- ▶ Concurrent law enforcement activity is not good cause to delay sending the written notice of allegations of delay to the complainant or respondent
- ▶ T&H Guidebook Document 23 – Notice of Extension of Timeframes

What can justify a delay for concurrent law enforcement purposes?

An oral request from law enforcement to delay

The arrest and incarceration of the Respondent

All of the above

None of the above

The police decided not to prosecute Robin because it's a "they said, they said" case. How does it impact your investigation?

You can rely on the police's finding to dismiss the complaint

You can rely on the factual information gathered by the police, but not their finding

You cannot rely at all on any information from the police

58

Police Results as Evidence?

- ▶ Police evidence may be useful for fact-gathering
- ▶ But the standards for and purposes of criminal investigations are different from educational institution investigations
- ▶ Police investigations or reports are not determinative of whether sexual harassment or violence violates Title IX

OCR 2011 DCL and 2020 TITLE IX REGS

59

When the Police Call

- ▶ Document everything!
 - Ask police to put request for delay in writing
 - Reduce verbal (e.g., telephone) conversations in writing
 - Best practice is to respond with summary/“If my summary is incorrect please let me know by [date] or I will assume it is correct.”
- ▶ Explain in writing the educational institution's obligation to conduct its own Title IX investigation and ask for notification when you can begin your investigation
- ▶ Follow up, then follow up again, then again

60

62

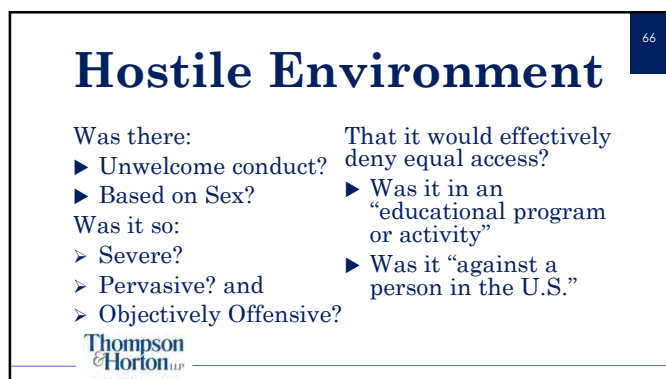

63

64

65

66

67

Impact – Effective Denial

- ▶ What were the effects on the Complainant, if any?
- ▶ What were the effects on the larger educational community, if any?
- ▶ What issues may need to be addressed with the Respondent, if any?

 Some institutions will separate this process from the initial investigation

What do you need to get the most out of your interview? Use the information, get help, get better results.

75

They-Said / They-Said What Do You Do?

76

They-Said / They-Said No Other Witnesses

- ▶ Sexual harassment often occurs behind closed doors
- ▶ There are often no witnesses to the alleged harassment
- ▶ Many cases are going to involve the complainant making certain allegations, the responding denying them, with no other witness
- ▶ The fact that there are no witnesses to the alleged harassment does not mean it is automatically a "50/50"
- ▶ A thorough investigation and a complete summary of all relevant evidence can help a decisionmaker assess credibility and reach a reliable determination

When poll is active, respond at pollev.com/thlaw411

Who is responsible for finding and providing evidence in a Title IX sexual harassment investigation?

- The Complainant must provide evidence to support the complaint
- The Respondent must provide evidence to refute the complaint
- Both parties must provide evidence to support their side
- Neither side must provide evidence to support their side

79

It's Your Job!

- ▶ The burden of proof and the burden of gathering evidence sufficient to reach a determination regarding responsibility rest on the educational institution, not the parties
- ▶ Off limits: medical treatment records without voluntary, written consent

Thompson & Horton LLP

80

But if the Parties Want to Share...

- ▶ Let them! Do not discourage parties from submitting evidence
- ▶ Give them the same opportunity to present evidence, suggest witnesses, recommend directions for your investigation
- ▶ If you decide not to pursue a suggested route, record your reasons and summarize in your report

Thompson & Horton LLP

81

Interviews – Outline

- ▶ Prepare an interview outline for each witness
 - Bullet points and lists can help you stay on track
 - But they don't help with word choice
 - Consider writing out (at least the most tricky) questions
- ▶ But you must always be flexible

Thompson & Horton LLP

82

Interview Outline

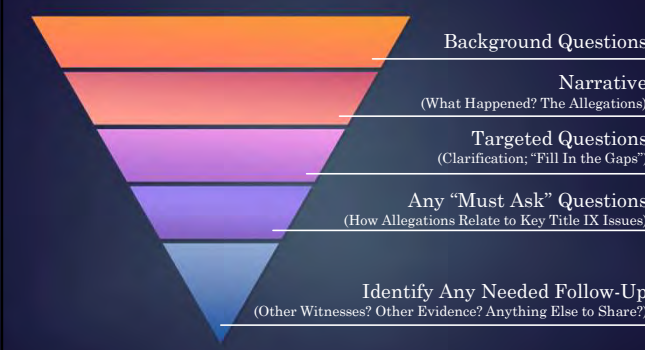

- ▶ Determine how you are going to establish rapport
- ▶ Focus on the allegations in the Formal Complaint and prepare questions to obtain a reliable chronology of events and all relevant information the witness has
- ▶ Identify "must ask" questions to elicit information related to Title IX sexual harassment definitions or to fill in gaps in chronology
- ▶ Identify evidence to discuss with witness

Good Preparation Is Key!

Thompson & Horton LLP

83

- Background Questions
- Narrative (What Happened? The Allegations)
- Targeted Questions (Clarification, "Fill In the Gaps")
- Any "Must Ask" Questions (How Allegations Relate to Key Title IX Issues)
- Identify Any Needed Follow-Up (Other Witnesses? Other Evidence? Anything Else to Share?)

84

“Must-Ask” Questions

- ▶ Is the conduct on the basis of sex?
- ▶ Is the conduct at issue Title IX sexual harassment?
 - If hostile environment harassment, was the conduct “unwelcome”?
 - If student-on-student Title IX Big 5, was there consent?
- ▶ Did the conduct occur in the education program and activities?
- ▶ How was the complainant denied equal access to educational programs or activities?

85

Writing Out Questions

- ▶ Tell me about your relationship with Robin/Carson.
- ▶ Would you say you were friends or more than friends?
- ▶ Did your relationship change at any time?
- ▶ How did it change?

86

Writing Out Questions

- ▶ Did you and Robin/Carson ever touch each other sexually?
- ▶ How frequently did that happen?
- ▶ Ok, let’s talk about the first time it happened, who was present, where were you, how was the conduct initiated, what did you say/they say?
- ▶ Let’s talk about the next time it happened... (etc.)

87

Before Interviews

- ▶ Decide how you will record information from the interviews
- ▶ Recordings may have to be shared (see later discussion of Directly Related Evidence)
- ▶ Consider having a note-taker attend

88

Before Interviews

Schools must provide the parties written notice of the date, time, location, participants, and purpose of all investigative interviews or other meetings with sufficient time to prepare

89

Before Interviews

- ▶ Recommended to do the same for non-party witnesses (not required)
- ▶ Use T&H Guidebook Document 30 – Notice to Party of Investigative Interview or Other Meeting and Document 31 – Notice to Witness of Investigative Interview of Other Meeting

90

In what order will you interview the witnesses?

Carson
Robin
Principal Patterson
Teacher Thompson
Law Enforcement Witness
Student Witness

91

Remember...

- ▶ Your job is not to weigh the evidence
- ▶ Keep in mind the standard of proof (preponderance of the evidence) in planning the investigation
- ▶ But you will not apply it directly

92

Standard of Evidence

- ▶ Most educational institutions uses the "preponderance of the evidence" standard
- ▶ Preponderance of Evidence:
 - > A fact is more likely than not to be true; a proposition is more probably true than false
 - > At least 51% of evidence favors the Complainant (50% and a feather)
Probability of Truth > 50%
- ▶ Where the evidence is equipoise ("50/50"), the result is a determination that respondent is not responsible

COLLECTION OF EVIDENCE

94

6. Collection of Evidence

- ▶ Includes interviews and reviews of tangible evidence
- ▶ Remember that this is your burden – think creatively, broadly, and evenhandedly

95

Start of Interviews

- ▶ Explain background information
 - > Explain expectations for parents/guardians and advisors
 - > Use T&H Guidebook Document 34 – Party Interview Intro or T&H Guidebook Document 35 – Witness Interview Intro
- ▶ Take notes using memorandum of interview or finalize notes in a memo after
 - > T&H Guidebook Document 33 – Memorandum of Interview

99

Advisor Expectations

- ▶ The educational institution may establish reasonable restrictions regarding the extent to which the advisor may participate in the proceedings, but the restrictions must be equally applied to both parties
- ▶ Recommended to provide an advisor (and party/parent) expectations document early on – in writing before the first interview or meeting
- ▶ Go over the expectations at the beginning of the first interview or meeting and secure confirmation of understanding
- ▶ Example is available in our Guidebook – Document 3

100

During Interviews

- ▶ Your goal is to obtain information, not share information
- ▶ Begin with open ended questions
- ▶ Probe more specifically if necessary

Thompson & Horton LLP
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

101

During Interviews

- ▶ Do not use terms that suggest prejudice or bias, like “victim” and “perpetrator”

Thompson & Horton LLP

102

Words Matter

- ▶ Avoid suggesting belief or disbelief (“I’m so sorry this happened to you”)
- ▶ You can be empathetic, though (“I can tell this is difficulty, would you like a break” or “I don’t expect you to be able to tell me every detail”)
- ▶ Avoid words that seem to blame a party (“Why didn’t you report it”)

A Respondent argues that a Complainant's mental health issues are the reason for a false complaint. Can the investigator ask the Complainant about it?

- No, information from treatment records is never relevant
- Yes, because it would be unfair to the Respondent not to consider their argument
- Yes, but only if there is voluntary, written consent

104

Don't Ask...

Unless you have written consent:

- ▶ Medical records

Retaliation Warning 113

- ▶ Investigators can (and should) warn parties and witnesses of risks that sharing information could lead to retaliation
- ▶ Also inform parties and witnesses that they should report if they feel they are retaliated against

Closing Interviews 114

- ▶ Ask “anything else”

- ▶ Ask for questions, including about process
- ▶ Always discuss retaliation – both against them and against the other party
- ▶ Explain next steps
- ▶ Ask the witness to reach out if they think of anything else later

114

After the Interview

- ▶ Finalize your notes as soon as possible
- ▶ Assess whether to update the investigation plan with other witnesses or evidence identified during the interview
- ▶ Gather any remaining evidence that is relevant to the allegations
- ▶ Assess whether any factual or chronological gaps exist and, if so, complete additional interviews and/or evidence collection

Uncooperative Witnesses

- ▶ What if a party or witness refuses to show up?
- ▶ Cannot make a decision solely based on a party's non-cooperation

116

Uncooperative Witnesses

- ▶ For parties, use T&H Guidebook Document 32 – Party Non Response to Interview Request
- ▶ For witnesses, there is less leverage; get creative
- ▶ Consider:
 - > Why the non-cooperation?
 - > Explain the consequences
 - > Involve others

"Fill In the Gaps"

- ▶ Are there any gaps in your chronology of events?
- ▶ Is there any evidence missing?
- ▶ Did you obtain all the documents and information the parties and witnesses referenced?
- ▶ Are there any follow-up questions you need to ask the parties or witnesses?
- ▶ Is there anything else you need to track down to prepare a thorough investigation report that will allow the Decisionmaker to reach a reliable determination?

What must the investigator provide the parties after the end of evidence collection?

- A copy of all evidence obtained in the investigation
- A summary of all evidence obtained in the investigation
- A copy of all directly related evidence obtained in the investigation
- A summary of all directly related evidence obtained in the investigation

121

DIRECTLY RELATED EVIDENCE

122

7. Compiling and sharing the DRE

- ▶ “Directly related evidence” is not defined in the rules
- ▶ Statements, notes of interviews, and other types of evidence collected in the investigation are likely covered

123

Directly Related Evidence

- ▶ Even evidence the educational institution doesn't think it will use
- ▶ The parties must be given at least 10 days to review all the evidence and submit written responses about the evidence to the investigator
- ▶ The investigator must consider the responses when writing the investigative report
- ▶ Use T&H Guidebook Document 37 – Notice of Right to Review and Respond to DRE

124

What is not directly related evidence related to Carson's formal complaint?

- “Sexting” messages between Robin and Carson in the Spring and Summer
- Draft interview notes or recordings once notes have been finalized
- A written statement from another classmate saying Robin did the same thing to them the year before
- Evidence of the specifics of Robin's disability services

All of the above are directly related

125

Does DRE include...??

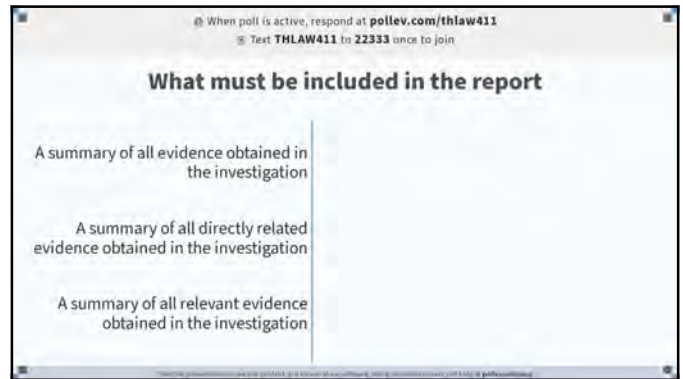

- Evidence subject to legal privilege
- Evidence related to a complainant's past sexual history not related to:
 1. The evidence is offered to prove someone other than the respondent committed the alleged sexual harassment
 2. The evidence relates to the sexual behavior between the complainant and respondent and is offered to prove consent

127

128

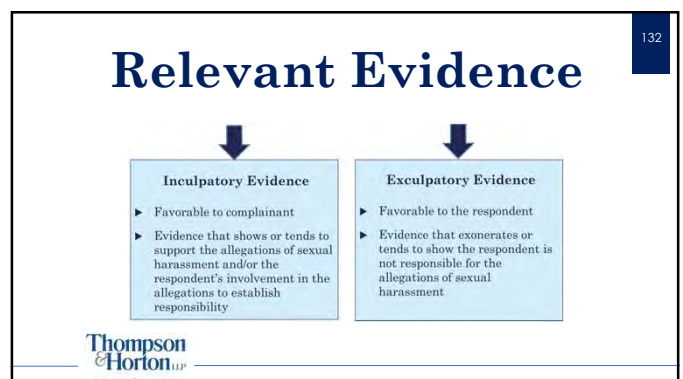

129

130

131

132

Rank the evidence from most relevant to least/not relevant

- "Sexting" between the parties during the spring and summer
- A written statement from a classmate saying Robin did the same thing to them
- A text message in which Robin apologizes to Carson for "going too far" and "not listening"
- Francis's statement that Robin told Francis to apologize to Carson for "going too far" and "not listening"
- Evidence that Carson "made out" with another classmate as justification for asking Carson to make out

133

Remember – not relevant without consent

Evidence subject to legal privilege

Evidence related to a complainant's past sexual history unless:

- The evidence is offered to prove someone other than the respondent committed the alleged sexual harassment
- The evidence relates to the sexual behavior between the complainant and respondent and is offered to prove consent

A party's records made or maintained by a medical professional or paraprofessional made and maintained in connection with the provision of treatment of the party

Credibility Determinations

The investigator does not make findings regarding credibility, but the investigator should include information related to credibility in the investigative report to help the decisionmaker assess credibility and reach a reliable determination that the respondent is or is not responsible for the alleged sexual harassment

135

Credibility Determinations

Inherent Plausibility	Demeanor	Motive to Falsify	Corroboration	Past Record
-----------------------	----------	-------------------	---------------	-------------

U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission
 EEOC Enforcement Guidance: Vicarious Liability for Unlawful Harassment by Supervisors (Jun. 18, 1999)

136

Credibility Factors

▶ Corroborating evidence	▶ Witness's memory (impact of time, outside influence, trauma, intoxicant)
▶ Contradictory evidence	▶ Witness's demeanor
▶ Source of information (and source motive)	▶ Witness's motivations or interest in the outcome
▶ Body language and demeanor	▶ Witness's bias or prejudice
▶ Specific details	▶ Internal consistency
▶ Reasonableness of testimony / plausibility	▶ Other factors of believability

137

Example

The parties do not dispute that in the Spring semester of 2022 and during the first weeks of the academic year in August 2022, Robin touched Carson for purposes of sexual gratification on three occasions. The main dispute is whether that conduct was consensual.

Thompson & Horton LLP

138

139

Example

According to Carson, Carson and Robin had discussed previously that Carson had never done anything sexual and did not want to do so. Carson says when Robin asked to “make out” or touch Carson, Carson always said no. Carson said they really like Robin and their families are friends, so Carson did not want to do anything to put that at risk. Carson also said that their parents are very strict and Carson was afraid if they knew anything happened, they would blame Carson. So, despite having said they did not want to, Carson said they eventually said “ok fine” on the occasions when the touching occurred.

139

140

Finalize the Report

- ▶ After the 10 day DRE review period, consider and address any responses to DRE in the report
- ▶ The report does not reach a decision/determination, that is the decision-maker’s role
- ▶ The educational institution must share the final report with both parties and their advisors (Use T&H Guidebook Document 39 – Notice to Parties to Review Investigative Report)
- ▶ Both parties must be given at least 10 days to review and respond before a final decision

140

Considering the Parties’ Response to the Evidence

- ▶ Did either party identify evidence that was absent or not gathered and that should be?
- ▶ Did either party identify new witnesses or new evidence that should be considered?
- ▶ Did either party point out inconsistencies in the evidence that are material to facts or issues in dispute?
- ▶ Did either party raise concerns regarding the relevance of the evidence that should be considered?

Investigator Tips

DOs

DON'Ts

142

143

Investigator “DOs”

Ensure you have no conflict of interest or bias & remain impartial	Treat all parties equitably	Provide equal opportunity to the parties to present evidence and witnesses	Objectively evaluate all evidence	Conduct a complete and thorough investigation
--	-----------------------------	--	-----------------------------------	---

144

Investigator “DONTs”

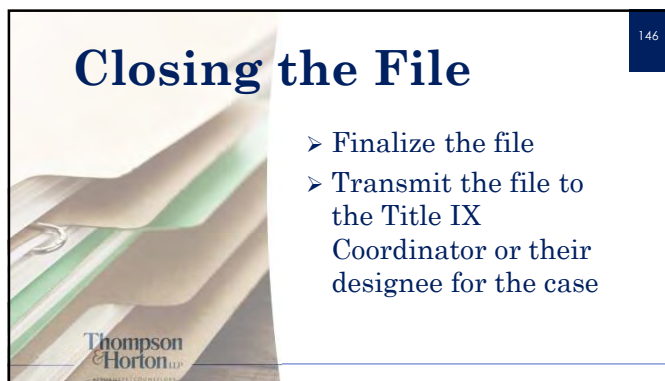

Conduct surprise interviews	Discriminate in the investigation or rely on stereotypes or preconceived notions	Restrict the parties’ ability to discuss allegations or gather evidence	Use privileged or other irrelevant information	Determine credibility or make a finding regarding responsibility
